1. The generators which the Soviet army took away from the Hsiao-fengman Plant have been returned by Soviet Army authorities in Harbin. About 20 Soviet technicians were sent from Harbin to supervise the installation of the generators. They also repaired other damaged equipment at the plant.
2. After this work was completed, the Soviet technicians repaired the Kirin-Harbin power transmission lines with the help of Chinese laborers.
3. On 20 July 1948, 6 Japanese employees of the plant and 18 dependents left Kirin for Mukden to be repatriated. Among the employees was the foreman of No. 4 generator room who had been employed at the plant since 1937.
4. On 4 August the plant was inspected by a group which included three Russians: HSING Shih-lien (邢士廉), Yenchi Garrison Commander; KAO Ch'ung-min (高崇民), Deputy Commissioner of the Northeast Political Bureau; and Temurbagan, a representative from Eastern Mongolia. [REDACTED] Comment. 25X1A
HSING has been identified previously as the Kirin Garrison Commander and probably erroneously as the Communist Governor of Kirin. KAO has been identified as a councilor of the Northeast [REDACTED] governor of [REDACTED] and as a leader of the Democratic League in the Northeast [REDACTED]. Temurbagan has been consistently reported as the Chief of the Finance Department of the Inner Mongolian Autonomous Government.) 25X1A
5. On 7 August YEN Szu-hai (袁四海), foreman of the 2nd Power Line Repair Unit, was arrested and taken to Yenchi. He was replaced on 10 August by a Korean, PAK Hi-chung (朴熙中). On 12 August nine Korean workers were transferred from the Suiho Power Plant to the Hsiao-fengman Plant.
